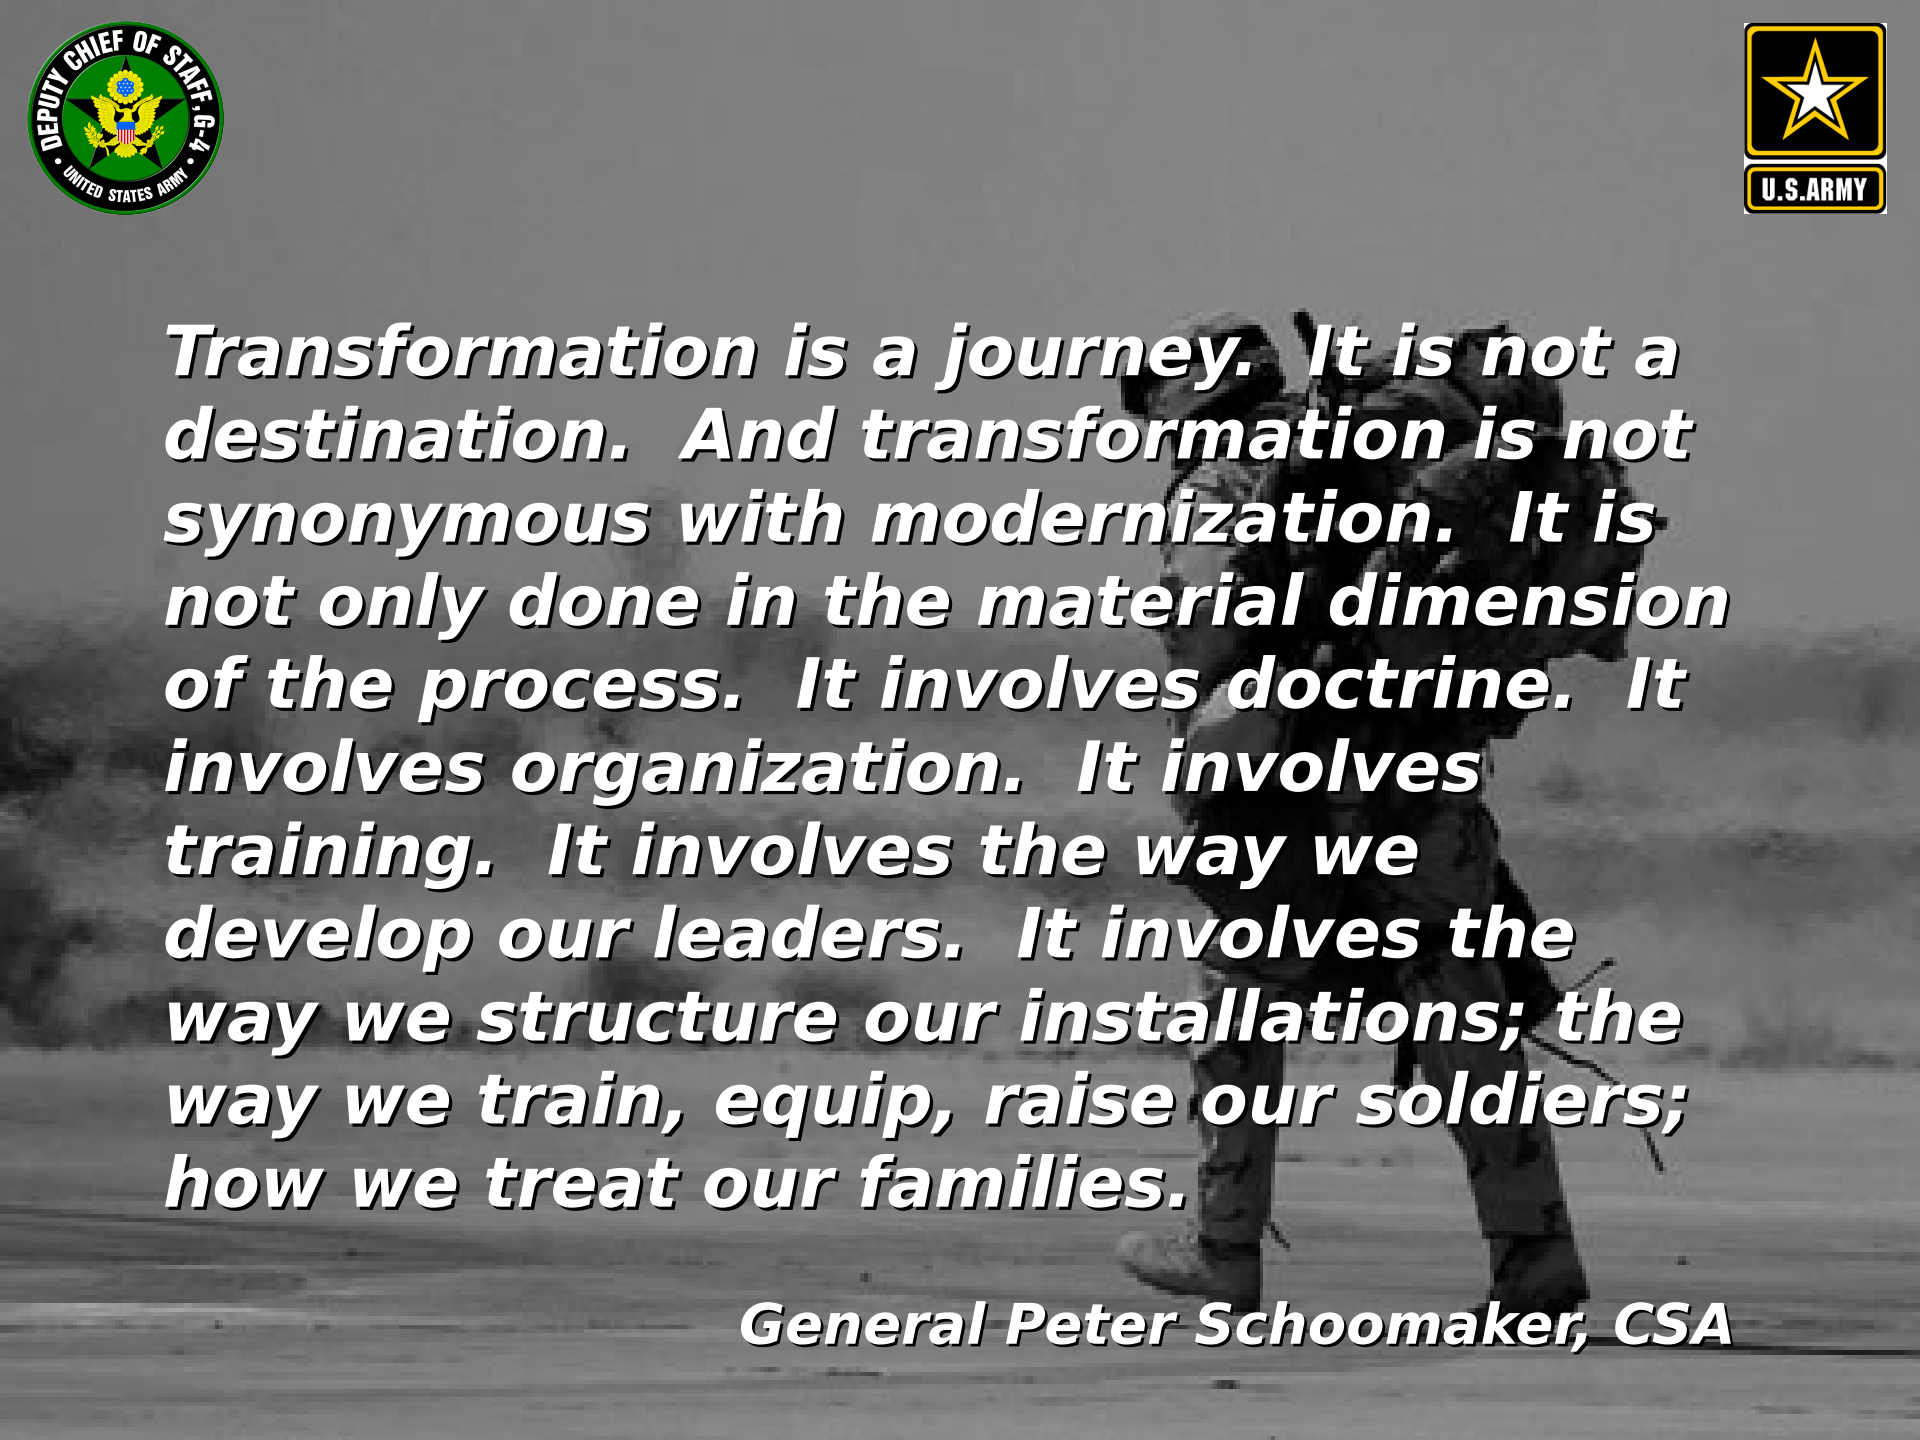
What I Hope To Leave You With…

- Supporting the Warfighter Is Our #1 Priority
- We are at War Today and Transforming for Tomorrow



DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF, G-4
UNITED STATES ARMY
U.S.ARMY
Transformation is a journey. It is not a destination. And transformation is not synonymous with modernization. It is not only done in the material dimension of the process. It involves doctrine. It involves organization. It involves training. It involves the way we develop our leaders. It involves the way we structure our installations; the way we train, equip, raise our soldiers; how we treat our families.
General Peter Schoomaker, CSA

A CHANGED BATTLEFIELD
